

DOUGLAS J. MACARTHUR

ATTORNEY

FISHER, BREN & SHERIDAN, LLP

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

With over 20 combined years of legal and business experience, Doug Mac Arthur offers a unique perspective on construction law and challenges facing contractors, professionals, suppliers, manufacturers, and other businesses. This experience combines deep legal expertise, with firsthand experience as a business owner in the construction industry. Having founded and run a successful business prior to becoming an attorney, Doug understands the challenges that business owners face and brings that invaluable insight into his legal practice.

Doug gained extensive experience in both law firms and in-house settings, navigating business and legal strategies in complex construction disputes, commercial litigation, professional liability claims, product liability, contract negotiations, business law, and risk management, and now brings that experience to Fisher, Bren & Sheridan LLP where his legal career began. His dual expertise in both law and business operations allows him to offer clients practical, result-oriented solutions that address both the legal and business aspects of their needs.

Now as a partner at Fisher, Bren & Sheridan LLP, Doug is dedicated to helping our clients navigate the complex landscape of the construction industry and other industries with a holistic, client-focused approach. His background in running a construction business makes him uniquely qualified to advise on everything from contract drafting and dispute resolution, to strategic growth and risk management that protect and grow our client's best interests.
